MISCELLANEOUS READING.

A GOOD ARGUMENT.

It has been customary, for some time, when a man is arraigned before a Court of Justice, for his counsel to put in a plea of insanity on behalf of the accused. Recently an old negro man applied to us (says the Louisville Democrat) for instruction how to proceed against one of his race, whom he charged with purloining a dollar from him. He told us that he had placed three silver dollars in a small but strong box, which he kept in his room; that a few days ago, Handy Andy (we will call him) broke the box open, took a dollar therefrom and decamped. We told him that it was useless to prosecute Andy unless he had proof to substantiate his charge, and then, probably, the accused would be acquitted on the plea of insanity, as no sane man would take one dollar and leave two behind. Then the old man exclaimed, with great emphasis: "Massa, I tell you dat nigger ain't crazy; he broke my box open and took de dollar out. Now, if he had broke box open and put in a dollar, den I say he's crazy."

THE OLD STORY AGAIN.

If "figures don't lie," we beg pardon before Bleached Sheetings; Blankets; Bed Tickings; hand of those of our readers whom the following frightens to death: "Some of the Adventists are again predicting the speedy end of all things terrestrial. The present year, too, is to be the last, and they arrive at this by a mathematical process,

"The equare root of the cost of Ezekiel's chariot was 8,564. From this take the exact 'profit value' of the 'scarlet lady of Babylon,' 1.282, and we have 7,281. Take from this the tube of the ram mentioned by the prophet Also, a large and well selected stock of NO. as pushing westward, 4,757, and we have TIONS, always on hand, and which will be for the remainder, 2525. Deduct from this the 'remainder of beasts,' mentioned in the Apocalypse, 666; and we get the result, 1858 -the year in which the end of the world is to take place!"

THALBERG'S DEPARTURE.

It is known that Sigismund Thelberg, the pianist, left his concert troupe in Illinois, and departed for Europe secretly and in disgrace. The cause was never publicly stated here, but foreign papers, since his return to Paris, intimate that it was the seduction of M'me D'Angri's youthful daughter. The Angri Corfuite was disposed to resent the disgrace he had put upon her child by a pistol-shot, but the rascal escaped that, as well as the den Silk; Foulard; Mouselaines; Bombazines; writ issued for his arrest. If these reports be correct, some of those persons who were so FOR GENTLEMEN. -Black Cloth; Fancy colour- loud in their praise of the "amiable, worthy and gentlemanly" Sigismund, will now change ings, Silk, Valencia, Velvet, Ac.; Merino Shirts; ties they ascribed to the great planist .- Cin.
